TAKE A STEP OUTSIDE YOUR COMFORT ZONE

AMAZING GRACE!

Sometimes the best lessons in life are given to us by our kids!

This past week my Wife, Cindy, and three Daughters spent some time at our yearly summer tradition. A Bible Camp in the beautiful Northwoods of Wisconsin. My youngest daughter Grace (9) informed me that she would REALLY like to sing a song for special music this year. (She is a very outgoing BLUE personality) BUT she was feeling a bit nervous when she started thinking about a Chapel full of people!

Dad was encouraging and said all the right things but quickly realized that this would be a little bit outside of her comfort zone and I thought maybe she would opt out of the deal by the next morning. However, she put her whole body into the words "I REALLY want to do it" during our conversation at the breakfast table. (She had her DREAM and seemed to be COMMITTED to making it happen!)

So I said, "Gracie, why don't you go UPLINE and ask for help!" (Yeah, she looked at me a little weird too) "Miss Melissa always sings for us at camp, maybe you could ask her to sing WITH you!" Grace sat straight up, looked around, spotted Miss Melissa and was off like a shot to seek the appointment! All of us could tell the answer when she raised both hands above her head before wrapping them around her new duet partner in a big hug! (Sort of like we do when we sign up a new Gold Ambassador)

Another challenge quickly appeared however: What song should they sing? Dad's recommendation of one of his favorites was eagerly accepted, 'Amazing Grace'.

Obstacle number two came into focus as 'My' Grace did not know the words to that one. I reassured her that was OK because lots of my downline does not know our comp plan either!! (Another weird look) "Just practice the song, get a feel for the music, read the words from the hymn book, follow Miss Melissa's lead and let your heart do the rest." (Personally, I thought that was pretty darn good advice from someone who did not have to stand up and sing in front of a whole bunch of people!)

Anyway, the next 3 days were full of practice in between the swimming and frog finding.

Then we were all treated to the presentation! It was AWESOME! (Now it's definitely Dad's favorite song!!) Gracie hit all the notes and most of the words too! Miss Melissa was outstanding and a gracious leader who allowed her understudy to shine! A beautiful rendition of a beautiful song and a great lesson to boot!!

The time is NOW for all of us to step outside our comfort zone's and let the world hear our story. I know it's not always easy nor comfortable but ultimately necessary for growth. Do you REALLY want to create a better tomorrow? I mean REALLY want to? If you get a little nervous, it's OK! ASK YOUR UPLINE TO SING WITH YOU AT FIRST! In no time you will start to see AMAZING results! And oh how sweet the sound!!

Have an AMAZING day! Chat again with you soon.
